

1954 TORRANCE BUSINESS REVIEW 1954

Fast service is available at the Elite Cleaners, 2163 Torrance Blvd., owned by Richard M. and Margery O. Armitage, who started business here in 1941. They do exclusive Sanitone dry cleaning, careful repairing, alterations, dependable rug and furniture cleaning, also clean and block hats. Here you will receive courteous and dependable service.

Your trade-in will probably do for the down payment on any new appliance. T. V. or household of furniture at Fred's Furniture Appliance Store, 1321 E. Pacific Coast Highway, which is owned by Fred Hagedorn and known as "the little store with the big ideas." He served with Army Intelligence for 4 years. Phone TE 4-4855 and inquire about terms that will fit your budget.

Wayne D. Bettis, owner and manager of 101 Bear Service, has been located at 25855 South Vermont, near 101 Highway, for 8 years, where he enjoys the confidence of hundreds of car owners who appreciate the type of repair work offered. Starting the business with one helper, Mr. Bettis now employs 9 specialists, some of these having as much as 30 years' experience. Come in for motor work, brake or wheel alignment, for fast, dependable service.

SAVE REPAIR COSTS and time. Call Moe of Moe's Associated Service, corner Carson and Figueroa, for steam cleaning service right in your garage or yard. A clean engine is easier to work on and Moe specializes in thorough steam cleaning. General auto repairing is also handled by Moe whose station is always as busy as shown in the above picture. A call to FA 8-4736 will give you prompt and efficient service.
